

Decide if it was the...

Americans or British

Americans or British

1. Bright Red Uniforms

Americans or British

2. Inexperienced soldiers

Americans or British

3. Most powerful navy in the world

Americans or British

4. Heavy war chest

Americans or British

Sharpshooters

Americans or British

5. Constant shortages

Americans or British

6. General William Howe

Americans or British

7. Helped by the French

Americans or British

8. General George Washington

Americans

Americans or British

9. Fighting on home ground

Americans or British

General Charles Cornwallis

Americans or British

10. New navy

Americans or British

11. Weak motivations

Americans or British

12. Outstanding leadership

Daily Debrief

Dear Scholars,

We have finally reached the end of the American Revolution and America has achieved its independence from Great Britain. The 13 colonies are now the United States of America. Today, we are going to begin reviewing for your Unit 5 exam. The material in this packet is meant to prepare you for your exam independently. Your exam will be Wednesday January 16, 2013 where we will cover everything from the French and Indian War through the Treaty of Paris. Good luck!

Let's get ready to

RUMBLE!!!

Stop & Jot

- When is your Unit 5 US History exam?
- What material will be covered on the Unit 5 US History exam?
- \What are two topics that will most likely be covered on this exam?

Directions

- You will have less than 10 mins. to complete each section.
- If you do not finish within the timeframe, you must move on to the assigned section
- Any section that you did not complete must be finished for homework, so use your time wisely but don't rush.

Part I - II: Vocabulary, Key People

- P. 3 - 4
- You have 8 minutes to complete this section
- Ready....set....GO!

Part III: Cause and Effect

- P. 4 - 5
- Write the name of the event and a brief 1 sentence description
- You have 6 minutes
- Ready...set...GO!

The background of the slide features a large, faint image of the Statue of Liberty. The statue is positioned on the left side, with its right arm raised holding a torch and its left arm extended holding a tablet. The background is a solid dark blue color.

Part IV: Strengths and Weaknesses

- P. 5
- You have 4 minutes to complete this section
- Remember to write in complete sentences!
- Ready...set...GO!

REVIEW!

- Switch papers with your shoulder partner and let's see how you did.
- Please use the Red Pen provided to grade your partner's work

Exit Ticket/Closing

- Complete the exit ticket on the last page chart
- Your homework is Unit 5 Review Day 1
- If you have any questions about this, please call, text, email, or message me from my website this evening (internet and texts preferred!)

